Press Release

RPM PRODUCTS HAS ACQUIRED 2 DIVISIONS OF RADIATOR SPECIALTY CO.

August 24, 2011 - RPM Products Inc., a world class global supplier for the Plumbing OEM & aftermarket industries, has acquired the Plumbing Parts and Douglas Tool® Divisions of Radiator Specialty Company.

For nearly 80 years plumbers have demanded the high quality products of Radiator Specialty Co. sold under Solder Seal® and Gunk® brands. Radiator Specialty's products have been "The Plumbers 1st CHOICE since 1933™".

Products Lines Include: Faucet Repair Parts, Toilet Repair Parts & Accessories, Douglas® Professional Plumbing Tools, Drain Cleaning Tools, Vinyl Tubing, Tite-Seal® Flappers & Tank Balls Much More.

Background: RPM Products has been manufacturing many of Radiator Specialty's rubber plumbing products for the last 20 years and now RPM will continue to manufacture & stock all the products including Golden State Bibb Washers®, Tite-Seal® Tank Balls, Seal-O-Matic® Flappers, Triple Seal® Tank Balls, and hundreds of other plumbing replacement parts.

RPM Products will have exclusive distribution and licensing rights of the Plumbing Division & the Douglas Tools Division product lines and RPM has been made a Master Distributor of the Chemical Products Lines as well, including Liquid Wrench®.

About RPM: Since 1995, RPM has been manufacturing Rubber, Plastic, & Metal parts for the plumbing Industry at both the OEM and the aftermarket levels. Their factories are ISO9002 & QS approved with manufacturing locations in the U.S., China, Taiwan, Mexico, and RPM is headquartered in Southern California.

What's Next?: Radiator Specialty's products will continue to be manufactured by RPM and made readily available in September. The remaining inventory in Charlotte NC is transitioning to RPM in Southern California now. Once inventoried at RPM they will continue to ship your orders while building stock. Soon a new RPM / Radiator catalog will be ready featuring many new products, and the RPM website will be up soon with online ordering and special pricing.

Trade Marks & Registered Trademarks are the property of Radiator Specialty Company
