TORC Announces Series Partnership with LIQUID WRENCH®

IRVINE, Calif. (February 6, 2015) — LIQUID WRENCH® announced today it has become a Series Partner with TORC: The Off Road Championship in 2015. “LIQUID WRENCH is a natural fit with TORC,” said BJ Birtwell, President of the TORC Series. “Their line of specialty lubricants is already used by our race teams and fan base.”

“The DIYer is as passionate about racing as they are about their projects,” said Marshal Livingstone, Director of Marketing and Consumer Insights at RSC Chemical Solutions. “TORC gives us the platform to reinforce the importance of making it move—with racers and with fans alike.”

In addition to the series partnership, LIQUID WRENCH is also the primary sponsor of the #21 Pro-Lite truck driven by Cam Reimers. The first TORC race kicks off in Dallas, TX on April 24-25. For more information on the TORC Series, visit their official web site at TORCSeries.com or follow them via their social media platforms at Facebook.com/TORC or on Twitter and Instagram at @TORCOffRoad.
